MEMORANDUM of UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN
Chill Indya AND ITS PARTNERS

SUBJECT: Partnership Agreement

Between

Chill Indya
Sole Proprietorship, Registered at the District Industries Center, Jaipur
Entrepreneurs Memorandum No. 08 012 21 16788

And

1. Purpose

This Memorandum of Understanding aims at clarifying the partnership between Chill Indya and the social organizations that constitute its network.

2. Context

Chill Indya is building a network of social organizations (mainly NGOs and social enterprises) to pursue four goals:

- Giving to tourists the opportunity to visit these organizations and understand how they work, what their impact is, and through this, to have an overview of the social situation in India;
- Giving the social organizations access to international resources (interns and volunteers) by collecting their offers and sharing them with qualified people, mainly in Europe;
- Increasing the international visibility of the social organizations through a regular newsletter;
- Building connections between socially committed organizations to share best practices and create a high database on the various issues they are dealing with.

3. Obligations of the partner

- The partner must communicate to Chill India the activities tourists can participate to when visiting the organization;
- The partner allows Chill India to use its name and logo when presenting its partner and to inform through the newsletter of the creation of a new partnership;
- The partner must use the defined template for internship and volunteering offers when there is a need requiring human resources;
- The partner must provide a supervision to the intern / volunteer all along his/her presence in the organization;
- The partner must support the intern / volunteer for the mission done for the organization, whether by a salary, a reimbursement of fees (e.g. accommodation, food, local transport) or a free providing of accommodation, food and/or local transport. This must be specified by the partner in each offer sent to Chill India.

4. Obligations of Chill India

- Chill India must inform the partner of a group coming to visit its organization at least ten days before;
- Chill India must communicate the offers send by the partner to all its contacts;
- Chill India must serve as an intermediary in the beginning of the recruitment process by receiving CVs and making a pre-selection, but Chill India must send all the applications to the partner;
- Chill India must support interns and volunteers in their adaptation to India;
- Chill India must help to solve potential problems appearing during the time of internship or volunteering;
- Chill India must inform the partner of the creation of a newsletter at least one month before so that the partner can notify Chill India about its latest news and achievements; however, Chill India keeps the right to select the most relevant articles;
- Chill India must always ask for the validation of the partner before publishing a content involving its name, logo and/or activities.

5. Duration of Memorandum of Understanding

This agreement prevails as long as the partner organization wishes to stay in the network and the both organizations fulfill their obligations.

6. Monetary terms

No monetary link is associated to this agreement.

If the partner expects a financial retribution for one of the activities it offers to tourists, it must be specified in the list of activities and the amount will be the subject of another agreement between Chill moya and its partner.

7. Follow-up and Evaluation

A yearly meeting will take place to evaluate the common activities implemented during the year. If needed, other meetings could be organized on demand on one of the contractors.

8. Termination clause

If one contractor does not fulfill the agreed obligations, the other contractor can emit a first warning. If there is no improvement and no mutual solution can be found, the end of the agreement will be signified to the contractor having failed fulfilling the clauses through a receipt letter, at least two months after the first warning. If the partner organization wishes to end the Memorandum of Understanding, a receipt letter will be sent to Chill moya explaining the reasons of this choice. The reception of the letter will mark the end of the agreement.

9. Effective date

The agreement will become effective on the day the partner and Chill moya sign this Memorandum of Understanding.
